REPUBLICANS of Somerset county the preliminary work of the canvass is now nearly over, and it is time for individual exertion. There is scarcely one of you who cannot make, or save a vote for the party if you will.

Let every man feel that it is his duty to be at the polls early on the 8th day of October, and to see that his neighbor is there. Vote early, and then devote yourself to getting out and voting, every Republican in your district.

In no single township of the county has our full vote been polled since the war. This was not because of disaffection, but simply through carelessness caused by a full assurance of victory. Now, it is important that every vote should be polled. Traitors and apostates in our ranks have shook hands with our ancient foes, and under the shallow pretext of reforming the party, are laboring for its overthrow.

Some good men, blinded by their own egotism, and misled by their ambition have deserted our ranks, but a vast majority of the recalcitrants were mere bummers, and camp-followers who preyed upon the party, and subsisted upon their flattery.

These men good, bad, and indifferent, all combined cannot carry from our ranks as many voters in the State, as we yearly fail to poll through inatten-tion and want of proper activity.

A full turn out will show no appreciable loss in our ranks. Like an advancing column, the enemy's pickets may bring down an occasional man, but our line closes up and we go forward to certain victory, scarcely noticing the life of those who have fallen by the way. We want a full vote, to prove to these bolters their utter insignificance as men, when weighed in the balance against principles. Pennsylvania is the battle field of the campaign, and her vote on Tuesday next will determine in advance the result of the Presidential contest.

The late elections have broken the backbone of Greeleyism throughout the country, and the sole remaining of the Democratic party and its Liberal allies, is to carry Pennsylvania. If they can beat HARTMAN next week, they hope to carry the State for Greeley in November, and "Anything to beat HARTMAN" is now their battle cry. Never in all history has any candidate been so vilely, so monstrously slandered, without the shadow of cause, but solely that by his destruction GREELEY might succeed. But the game will not win; HARTMAN will be elected surely as he lives until the 8th day of October. Intelligent Republicans all over the State scout the lies of the thieves, forgers, and villains who have assailed his integrity, and will work only the more tenaciously to vindicate his name by his triumphant election—Republicans of Somerset county we call upon every man of you to do your share of the good work.

HARTLEY, the Democratic candidate for Auditor-General, remained at home during the war, abused the Government, and denounced the soldiers of Pennsylvania as LINCOLN hirelings. GENERAL ALLEN, on the other hand, was at the front with his life in his hands, in defence of the Union, and the friends of Pennsylvania. Voters, choose between these two men.

We ask every respectable man in the county, to remember the Senatorial disgrace we have endured for the last three years, and then lend his aid to retrieve our good name by voting for Col. LEMON.

REMEMBER that the repeal of the state tax on real estate was a practical relief that came instantly home to every owner of a house or farm in the commonwealth. It was recommended by General JOHN F. HART-

MAN, Auditor General of the State; and not content with advocating a measure of general utility that, because it had no particular body of advocates, had been neglected by his predecessors. General HARTMAN personally urged the wisdom of his policy upon the Legislature. He did so as a matter of expedient legislation for the whole state, and with such ability that his recommendation was adopted. He was the first in his office who worked to repeal the specific tax levy. For such action that benefitted every one but himself, he is the creditor of every taxpayer. Is there anything in BUCKALEW's record, on state politics, at all comparable with this?

"After a thorough investigation of the case, I have been convinced that the charges against General HARTMAN are totally unfounded, and that it is the duty of every loyal citizen and friend of General Grant and his Administration, to support General Hartman as Governor of this State."

"Yours, respectfully,

"GEO. H. STUART."

ANDREW G. CURTIS, under the manipulation of ALEX. McCLEURE, has written a letter announcing that he has gone over to the enemy and will vote for BUCKALEW. This is no surprise to us. We have known since the day of the passage of the "bill commuting the tonaage tax," that McCLEURE owned CURTIS and yielded him at his will, and when the question was first mooted as to where CURTIS would stand in this contest, we proclaimed in these columns that McCLEURE carried him in his breeches pocket, and the result proves that we were not mistaken. It is but the loss of a single voter, by suicide; CUR-TIS will vote as SUMNER did, that he will sink into utter oblivion. When a man plays false to principles, and deserts the party that made him, he becomes an object of disgust and scorn, harmless for good or evil.

The people of this county are just on the eve of realizing the hopes of long years, in the development of their coal and iron ores. Railroads have been built and are building, and others are contemplated in the near future, for the purpose of reaching our coal and iron fields. Our population and wealth are increasing, our mines are commencing to be worked, and everything looks fair for our future prosperity. This is the result of Protection to American industry, whereby skilled labor receives remunerative wages, and in return demands the product of the mines for its consumption. The man who votes for B. F. MEYERS for Congress, knowingly votes for an avowed Free Trader, and against the interests and prosperity of the country, for without protection our manufacturers and mechanics cannot compete with the cheap pauper labor of Europe.

THE Republicans of Blair county are making a noble struggle, with the certainty of success, to redeem their Congressional district, and send Hon.

A. A. BARKER to Congress in place of their present Democratic member SPEER. In this good work our candidate, Col. JOHN A. LEMON, is taking an active and useful part, entrusting his canvass in this county entirely to his friends. We hope therefore, that every Republican voter will consider it his special duty to see that he loses nothing by this sacrifice of his own personal interests to those of his party.

REPUBLICANS! go to the polls and vote a clean ticket. Vote for every candidate of your party. It is a safe rule to assume that they are in every respect more worthy than their competitors. Vote for principles, not men.

All personal likes and dislikes should be sunk, for the sake of principles and party. Remember that the Democratic candidates who are now seeking your votes, would see you see in Topbet before they would vote for one of you. Stick to the ticket.

Out of his own mouth we have shown that Hon. B. F. MEYERS is a Free Trader, and deliberately voted against the coal interests of our people, and afterwards boasted of his treachery. The development of our coal, by the building of the Connellsville and other railroads, insures wealth and prosperity to the county.

Our people should not forget these important facts and vote for Hon.

JOHN CESSNA, who has steadily stood by our interests.

EVERY man who wants to see our protection policy preserved, will vote for CESSNA, LEMON and McMILLAN.

CESSNA will vote if returned to Congress, in favor of Protection to our domestic industry, while LEMON and

Mc
